

WET / DRY STATUS OF TEXAS COUNTIES

MAY 2010

Although the laws regulating the alcoholic beverage industry are consistent statewide, the Alcoholic Beverage Code allows local determination of the types of alcoholic beverages which may be sold and how they can be sold by means of local option elections. Elections can be held by counties, cities or individual justice of the peace precincts.

As of May 2010, there are 43 completely wet counties in Texas, and 29 completely dry counties. Most counties fall somewhere in between.
